11. Commission Comments

11.1 Commissioner Brandimarte

Commissioner Brandimarte had no comments.

11.2 Commissioner Flury

Commissioner Flury addressed some of the issues regarding the airport expansion, including the two legal cases that are still pending, the awaiting of a ruling on the case against the Army Corps of Engineers, and the pending case against the County regarding the 1995 interlocal agreement. She spoke of the ongoing desire to mitigate the impacts to Dania Beach; last year's agreement with the County, which the FAA opposed; and the voluntary covenants and release program. At this point, everyone has agreed to sit down and talk on June 6 to determine if there is a mutual interest to go forward with more serious talks. If the County agrees to give what is felt to be fair to the residents and to the City, something would be put together for the Commission to discuss and to share with the residents. She noted there are no secret issues or agendas and we will have to wait to see what happens.

Commissioner Flury asked the Mayor to respect his colleagues and the positions they hold. She addressed comments that are posted on his Facebook and Twitter accounts, and questioned why he would allow her stalker to post to his account. She asked him to stop using her as the centerpiece of his Twitter trash.

11.3 Commissioner Grace

Commissioner Grace had no comments, but asked Alma Wright to come to the podium and speak about a program at CW Thomas.

Ms. Wright, 117 SW 5th Court, noted the girls in her program will graduate May 23rd, and invited the Commissioners to attend and support them.

11.4 Vice-Mayor Jones

Vice-Mayor Jones thanked the CRA and Public Services for removing and replacing the dead Cabbage Palms at CW Thomas Park; however, there is still a dead tree across from Commissioner Grace's house.

Vice-Mayor Jones noted the solar lighting policy is in place, but the flaw lies in the implementation insofar as the City Manager is not in the mix, as he should be. Future lighting projects will go to him first and then to the Commission.

Vice-Mayor Jones commented on a meeting of the Coastal Ocean Task Force where beach renourishment was discussed, noting there is a policy flaw with the Army Corps of Engineers and how money is being appropriated. He described a policy initiative underway to deal with this issue that involves projects that would allow for partnership agreements.

Vice-Mayor Jones spoke about a consortium of Education Advisory Boards he attended, noting they want a resolution dealing with high stake testing, to be possibly adopted by cities. Additionally, 2012/2013 grades 5 and 8 students will be required to re-register for the 2013/2014 school year and provide documentation verifying their address.

Vice-Mayor Jones commented that he attended a town hall meeting at Mt. Zion AME Church, where Superintendent of Schools Runcie was present, and they want to know what is happening with Collins Elementary with respect to it possibly being closed. Superintendent Runcie told the group that there have been no such decisions made regarding Collins or Attucks Middle School.

Vice-Mayor Jones noted the Education Advisory Board will start meeting in June.

11.5 Mayor Duke

Mayor Duke noted he supports social media; however, he does not recall any of the comments mentioned tonight. His wife, as a bona fide resident and concerned citizen, has a right to make any comments she wants.

Mayor Duke said in regard to the residency of Commissioner Flury, he had asked the City Attorney for an opinion and he opined that Commissioner Flury met the requirements of the Charter. According to the Charter, the Commission has the final say on the issue, but he feels they should focus on handling their business and let an outside source handle any resident's issues with Commissioner Flury's residency. If there are still concerns, the matter should be taken to the Inspector General.

13.2 City Attorney

City Attorney Ansbro requested an Attorney Client Session to discuss the Ft. Lauderdale Airport litigation on Tuesday, May 28, 2013 at 5:00 p.m.

City Attorney Ansbro noted Jai Alai is set to close on their partnership deal on May 22. The existing development agreement may change; if so, it will come before the Commission.
